

Serbian government had notified its diplomats of the mobilization order, with the statement that Bulgaria has decided merely to change from unwarmed to armed neutrality.

The wording of this statement led to the belief in some circles that mobilization will not necessarily be followed by Bulgaria's entrance into the war.

An accumulation of dispatches, however, from Athens, Berlin, Vienna, Rome, Copenhagen and Geneva this afternoon increased the feeling of pessimism here. London would not be surprised to hear of clashes between the Serbian and Bulgarian frontier patrols before tomorrow.

The Bulgarian premier's statement to a delegation of deputies that the mobilization order resulted from a "quickly-developing situation" strengthened the belief here that Bulgaria will strike when the Austro-Germans actually begin their attempted invasion of Serbia.

Only brief dispatches from Bucharest and Athens were received here this afternoon. London, however, counts confidently upon the support of the Greek and Rumanian armies for the allies if Bulgaria enters the war.

AMERICAN TROOPS GO SOUTH

Despite Berlin and Vienna dispatches today, reporting that the Austro-Germans are bombing the Serbian river defenses with the utmost vigor, the greatest confidence is felt in military circles here that the Serbians will be able to withstand the assaults.

"The Austro-Germans must use at least 400,000 men to make any headway at all against Serbia," said one London military source today. "I do not believe they can spare that many men when you consider the fact that the Russians are checking the Germans in the east and that the allies must prepare to meet a possible offensive in France."

The Serbian army, it is known here, has new large supplies of ammunition, in marked contrast to the situation with the Serbs earlier in the war. Since the Serbians inflicted a crushing defeat on the Austrians last December, they have been supplied with every requirement of a modern army. English officers have assisted in drilling the new levies, which are well supplied with actual combat and field pieces.

The Austro-German bombardment indicates a plan to advance along the Moravia valley, where the heavy mountain region gives great natural advantages to the Serbs.

Allied Aviators Shell German Troop Trains And Railway Junctions

PARIS, Sept. 22.—Allied aviators bombarded German railway junctions and troop trains with marked success in attacks at several points near the battle-front last night.

Several English birdmen attacked German camps at Middlekirke, emptying their machines to bomb supplies, and returned safely, despite heavy German fire. Another British air hostess sped along the Brussels-Thourout railway, bombarding a troop train below with good results. French aircraft threw bombs on the railway station at Conflans.

This afternoon's communiqué reported violent rifle fire around Bessinghen and Arrea. The rifle action followed prolonged bombardment from both sides.

Intermittent cannonades occurred during the night between the Somme and the Oise. This afternoon's communiqué also reported artillery actions north of Chaulons, between the Aisne and the Argonne and in Lorraine.

Baseball Manager Freed Of Recklessness Charge

BALTIMORE, Sept. 22.—Jack Dunn, president and manager of the Baltimore Orioles, was freed of a charge of recklessness today after a hearing before the National League and a former owner of the team that represented this city in that league, was dismissed by a police magistrate this morning after charges of recklessness operating in his automobile had been preferred against him.

Dunn's machine figured in an auto crash-up at North Avenue and McMechen street last night, in which Mrs. Dunn was slightly injured. He was arrested with the driver of the other car. Both were released after the hearing this morning.

THREE DIPLOMATS ARE FACING RECALL

Capt. Von Papen, Nuber, and Schweigel Implicated in Archibald Letters.

declaration that the President can "force" the House and Senate to his will were not regarded as technical breaches of etiquette by an ambassador, they aroused resentment at the White House.

As regards German Military Attaché von Papen, the Archibald letters show that he used Archibald as a carrier of both official and personal papers. The former is the graver offense, in the minds of officials. That his usefulness is at an end so far as this Government is concerned, and that he will be withdrawn by Ambassador Bernstorff, either with or without the suggestion of the State Department, was generally believed certain.

Whether Von Papen meant to refer to all Americans as "idiotic Yankees," or only to certain individuals, was an element in Von Papen's case. The expression, coming from an accredited diplomatic representative, was regarded, however, as at least, unfortunate.

Nuber in Dumba's Position.

Revelation that Austrian Consul General Nuber had sent an official report to his foreign office by Archibald was officially regarded as placing him in Dumba's position, of having abused an American passport. It is understood Nuber's credentials will be canceled and also those of Consul Schweigel, who sent a formal report regarding the proposed munitions embargo.

Officials were still undetermined today regarding Dumba's fate. He was taken against the Hungarian newspaper editor, who submitted a memorandum outlining plans for the strikes proposed by Ambassador Dumba. The fact that the editor proposed paying union "agitators" to foment strikes, and also subsidizing newspapers was a basis, it was believed, for a charge of "conspiracy."

Bernstorff Not Censured.

Ambassador Bernstorff is regarded by the Government as not being implicated in any wrongdoing in the Archibald incident. The letters show that Bernstorff's action consisted only of giving Archibald letters, of introduction, and to expedite his travel.

The fact that Bernstorff's note to Secretary Lansing denying charges of a German propaganda conspiracy was previously forwarded to the department and a copy merely sent by Archibald was not considered a breach of etiquette. The Bernstorff note had also been previously published.

Officials and diplomats were greatly interested today in the statements in the Dumba notes that the President Wilson has had this country's possible future interests in view in refusing an arms embargo.

That the President "at no price and in no case" will take a position that would imperil this Government's right to purchase war supplies from neutrals in time of war, particularly when the chief source of supply would be in foreign countries, was regarded as most significant.

That Dumba has consulted with Col. E. M. House, the President's closest personal friend and advisor, regarding the President's position on a munitions embargo, was another interesting disclosure.

Meat Case Interests Officials.

Alleged threats of Chicago packers, as declared by Dumba, to cut off England's meat supply, both from the United States and Argentina, excited much comment, in view of the recent British prize court decision confiscating dollars worth of Argentine meat. Officials said they knew of no definite plan by the packers, who control the Argentine export trade as well as the American. Refusal of private manufacturers to sell goods to any British or other firm would not be illegal, it was stated.

SMITH WILL LEAD G. O. P. IN PHILLY

Nominated By Republicans For Mayoralty. Washington Party Named Porter.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 22.—Thomas B. Smith, Republican candidate for mayor, swept the city by a majority estimated at 150,000, according to almost complete returns today from yesterday's primary election. George D. Porter, Washington party candidate, defeated Col. Sheldon Potter, and B. Gordon Bromley was nominated on the Democratic ticket.

The nominations for three judges of the superior court was the only statewide ticket. In the east there was little opposition to the two incumbents, who are candidates to succeed themselves, John B. Head, Democrat, of Westmoreland, and George B. Orlady, of Huntingdon. The third candidate for

Cleanse the Blood Banish Rheumatism

Rheumatism Due to Bad Blood. S. S. S. Your Remedy

Thousands have been made well. People in the poorest health, suffering from Rheumatism, with whom pain was constant. Who believed that their vitality was sapped beyond repair. It was proven to them that the cause of their trouble was the blood; that Uric Acid, the most faithful ally of Rheumatism, had gripped them. The poison in the blood had sapped its strength. The weakened blood had allowed poison and impurities to accumulate, and all energy was gone. They felt "poorly," were listless, pain was ever present, with poor digestion and dyspepsia. They tried S. S. S.—nature's blood tonic. They gave up drugs. This compound of nature's remedies of roots and herbs did what drugs failed to do. It literally washed the blood free from poison, and with the flow of pure blood came back health, strength, vigor, and happiness. Get S. S. S. from your druggist. Insist upon S. S. S. If yours is a long standing case, write for special advice to S. S. S. Co., Atlanta, Ga., but begin taking S. S. S. at once.—Adv.
